TRIAL STIPULATION RE BIDS FROM B & U, INC.,
SITE ENGINEERING, INC., THOMAS T. TAKESHITA & SONS, INC. AND HOME CONTRACTORS, INC.

The United States and defendants, through their counsel, have stipulated, or agreed, to certain facts. This means you are to regard those facts as having been proven. The facts to which they have agreed are as follows:

The fiscal office of the State of Hawaii, Department of Transportation, Airports Division maintains records of all purchase orders issued for maintenance work at the Honolulu International Airport. The records maintained by the fiscal office include copies of bids or proposals received from contractors for the provision of maintenance work.

Government exhibits 52, 53, 54 and 55 are true and correct copies of bids or proposals received by the State of Hawaii, Department of Transportation, Airports Division. Such bids or proposals were regularly kept by the State of Hawaii, Department of Transportation, Airports Division in the ordinary course of its business activity. The parties agree that such exhibits may be admitted into evidence without the need for foundational testimony, subject to any relevancy objections.

The parties further stipulate that, from July 1, 1997 through June 30, 2002, B & U, Inc., Site Engineering, Inc., Thomas T. Takeshita & Sons, Inc. and Home Contractors, Inc. did not receive any small purchase contracts for work at the Honolulu International Airport.

DATED: September 20, 2006 at Honolulu, Hawaii.
